

Embark on a transformative journey with the Cambridge SupTech Lab Innovation Leaders Residency programme!

Are you ready to lead the digital transformation of financial sector supervision? Do you want to drive innovation and the growth of the global suptech movement? We invite current employees of financial authorities in roles such as supervisors, examiners, data scientists, statisticians, economists, and other related positions to join this 12-month part-time, remote programme.

BENEFITS	ELIGIBILITY	RESPONSIBILITIES
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>▪ A custom training curriculum including a focus on soft skills</li> <li>▪ Authoring opportunities in collaboration with Cambridge SupTech Lab experts</li> <li>▪ Closed-door symposium participation to strategize the future of suptech</li> <li>▪ One-to-one mentoring sessions with international experts</li> <li>▪ Research and fundraising support</li> <li>▪ A monthly stipend to be used at your discretion for research and development purposes (if applicable)</li> <li>▪ Opportunities to teach and contribute to the course offering at Cambridge University</li> <li>▪ Peer collaboration and networking with international leaders</li> <li>▪ Further international speaking, learning and outreach opportunities</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>▪ Be currently employed at a financial authority</li> <li>▪ Have a track record of implementing innovative strategies and be motivated to accelerate digital transformation through suptech solutions</li> <li>▪ Be available (part-time, remotely) from January to December 2024</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>▪ Commit to engage with the community for the length of the programme</li> <li>▪ Share your learnings with colleagues</li> <li>▪ Remain with your agency for two years after programme conclusion</li> </ul>

READY TO BE PART OF THE FIRST COHORT OF INNOVATION LEADERS?

Submit your application or nominate a colleague by November 20

